

Dear FCC:

Below is a copy of the e-mail that I've sent to my local Sinclair-owned station. As I say below, I think it is especially important that the media remains as non-partisan as possible and this particular film is nothing if it is not partisan. As a user of the public airwaves this and other stations have a responsibility to inform us, but not to manipulate us.

"As a loyal viewer of channel 23, I ask you please not to air Stolen Honor before November 2. I think especially given the deeply partisan and sharp nature of this year's electioneering, the press must make an especially careful effort to remain as non-partisan as possible. Your showing of Stolen Honor, without some balancing piece, would constitute taking a political position. Please do not do that."
